WELCOME VISITORS!

Thank you for joining us today to worship the Lord.

If this is your first visit here, please honor us by filling out a visitor’s card found on the back of each pew. Your prayer requests may also be made on the flip side of the card. At the close of service you can hand it to any member, place it in the contribution box at the front of the auditorium or simply leave it in the pew and we will collect it.

During the service we will celebrate communion. (Sacraments are available on the table in the entry foyer.) This is a time that we partake of unleavened bread and juice from the fruit of the vine to remind us what Jesus has done for us. Communion is not only about Jesus’ death, but his resurrection and triumph over death and sin. His resurrection is the source of our hope that God will fulfill his promise of eternal life through Jesus the Christ.

FELLOWSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Feb 19—TODAY—3rd Sunday Lunch -

Everyone is invited. Today, the men of the congregation will “set-up” the meal.

These meals are always an opportunity for good food and fellowship to help start the new week on a positive note.

Feb 25—Annual Phil Simco Memorial Chili Cook-off—

That is next Saturday !

Judging to begin at 6:30 pm

This event is something everyone looks forward to each year.

More fun and good food. If you aren't competing in the cook-off, just bring side dishes suitable for chili and come join the fun.

THE 7 LAST DAYS OF JESUS' LIFE

Saturday

What would you do if you only had seven days to live? What are the most important things you can do? Jesus faced this situation as he arrived in the area of Jerusalem before his last Passover. So, my goal is to find out what he did every day during his last week on the earth.

Jesus had just visited Jericho, where he stayed with Zaccheus. On the Saturday before Passover Jesus traveled to Jerusalem for the last time. On the way he paused to heal a blind man named Bartimaeus before he continued the ascent to Jerusalem.

The trip from Jericho to Jerusalem was not an easy journey. The road during New Testament times was eighteen miles long and climbed from Jericho (820 feet below sea level) to Jerusalem (2474 feet above sea level). So that you might have a better understanding of this rise lets consider Raton Pass, on I-25, between Raton, New Mexico and Trinidad, Colorado. The elevation of Raton, New Mexico, is 6680 feet above sea level. The top of Raton Pass, ten miles north, has an elevation of 7835 feet above sea level. So, in ten miles I-25 rises 1155 feet. Having driven that stretch of highway numerous times under various conditions I can say that under the best conditions it would be a difficult walk. By comparison, the road from Jericho to Jerusalem is eight miles longer but rises an additional 2400 feet. That is like climbing a 12 ½ story building every mile. It makes me breathless just thinking about it.

Most sources agree that a healthy person can walk twenty miles a day. So, Jesus probably traversed the distance in a day. That said, I am not surprised that we find Jesus resting in Bethany after a long day's trek. The gospels differ about which house he was in. Matthew and Mark relate that it was in the home of Simon the Leper (Matthew 26:6-13 and Mark 14:3-9), while John records that it was in the home of Lazarus (John 12:1-11). Matthew and Mark don't identify the woman; however, John lets the cat out of the bag. It was Mary, the sister of Lazarus. There are other differences. For instance, John and Mark point out that the price of the perfume was three hundred denarii, but John leaves out the price. Also, Mark and Matthew inform us that the perfume was in an alabaster container and that it was poured on the head, while John remembers that it was poured on the feet. Finally, Matthew and Mark say the apostles were arguing about the price of the perfume, but John zeros in on Judas. One would think they were recording two different accounts except for one important thing. All three recount the apostle's objection to cost of the perfume, and Jesus telling them that her act was preparing his body for burial. Ominous. After this there is no more discussion.

Maybe, whose house, or the head or feet is not the important thing here. Jesus had just walked uphill for eighteen miles toward the cross. As he laid his head on a cushion that night his mind replayed not only the lessons and miracles of the day, he thought of every uttered word for the last three years. He had served his father well, but he was not done. One more week. One day at a time.

Jude 20-22

<sup>20</sup> But you, dear friends, by building yourselves up in your most holy faith and praying in the Holy Spirit, <sup>21</sup> keep yourselves in God's love as you wait for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to bring you to eternal life.

<sup>22</sup> Be merciful to those who doubt;
