

WELCOME VISITORS Thank you for joining us today to worship the Lord.

If you are looking for a supportive, Bible-based church family, we believe you have found it at Westworth. You are always welcome to be a part of the warmth and loving nature that is shown here . We have a place for you!

If this is your first visit here, please honor us by filling out a visitor’s card found on the back of each pew. Any prayer requests may also be made on the flip side of the card. You may hand it to any member, place it in the contribution box at the front of the auditorium or simply leave it in the pew for us.

During the service we will celebrate communion. Communion is not only about Jesus’ death, but his resurrection and triumph over death and sin. His resurrection is our source of hope that God will fulfill his promise of eternal life through Jesus the Christ. (Sacraments are on the table in the entry foyer.)

Home and Family Blessings

For the first time in his seven years, Ethan came to visit us without his parents. His maternal grandparents brought him from California to a family reunion and dropped him off at our house. We planned a trip to meet his parents at the Grand Canyon. When he arrived Sunday, his main question was “when will my cousins come so I can play with them”. He was only about nine hours ahead of them. Even so, the day was long.

All had been well. However, after a fairly long phone conversation with mother a definite case of homesickness set in on him. Cousin Caleb, at only nine years of age and aware of his feelings, began some rather good counsel to help him deal with it. I took note of two things. First, home was where Ethan wanted to be. To him there was no place like it. I’m proud that his home was so very attractive to him. That is how it should be for everyone. Second, was the care that was being offered and given from cousin to cousin. During the course of the visit there were minor injuries to both of these boys. Normal stuff that comes from hard and fast playing. Each one offered sympathy and compassion to the other when hurting. That is how it should be.

My prayer is that adults in our world today would once again recognize the importance and value of home and family in light of God’s design. It would be a place where everyone longs to be. And also, if only the grownups of our world could have the sympathy and compassion shown by those cousins, we would have an improved world!

I do not wonder for one moment why the Lord Jesus said that we should become like little children.

Sunday—July 16, 2023

If all goes as planned, John Jewell will be here to report the latest on the work in Malawi.

They are currently in Malawi—after 3 1/2 years away—providing encouragement to Snoden and Susan and the small staff at the school.

Be sure to be here that Sunday to hear from John and re-invigorate our efforts for the children of Malawi.

HUGS FOR TOMORROW
A NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATION

It will also be 3rd Sunday—so we will do our regular 3rd Sunday lunch and enjoy a little extra time with John and Samantha.

While they are in Texas they will also visit other groups who have helped this mission work over the years.

Mark your calendars now for these two events.

On-going...

Non-Perishable Food Items—Next Sunday will be the ‘deadline’ for the designated period. Your generosity is evident and most certainly appreciated. If you have planned to be part of this effort to help Southside Church of Christ sustain their food pantry please bring your contributions by next Sunday, June 11.

Delivery is tentatively scheduled for Mon, June 12.

What can we do together?

Do you have a favorite warm-weather activity that would be a great fellowship event ?

Please share your ideas—or even just plan the get-together and make it known so we can all enjoy a little bit of life together.

(a Rangers game, a trip to Fossil Rim Wildlife park, a picnic at a local area park—just begin making plans and invite everyone)
